

in so many words. The thing is done in deed in fact, already.
"All the Knaps over & all the Knaps [I mean
"Can't sit humbly & dumbly up again,
- after this: - So I never cry over Spilt Blood or tears - need ~~less~~ Spilt, in one sense, though they be. But joyfully reap the good that springs from evil. We have been as busy as bees, with getting off volunteers, here in My month.
The proclamation of an intention to draft, brought them out in throng, anxious to secure the Privity. The house of Weston does no part toward the public service by giving Hesse's wife Almira & his daughter, Anne Weston Hesse, then rent in the old "Spelt. (Moose cottage," & at the last <sup>I set up & made what</sup> ~~Moose~~ <sup>Hesse</sup> wanted, - a "Havelock" - (white factory cotton